KERRY CAMINO

Stretching 57km (35 miles) long, this pilgrim trail starts at St. John's Church in Tralee and finishes at St. James' Church in Dingle.

The route is believed to have been taken by Irish pilgrims setting sail for Northern Spain to visit the tomb of St. James the apostle. One of these pilgrims was St. Brendan The Navigator - who many believe discovered America before Christopher Columbus.

ST. KEVIN'S WAY & GLENDALOUGH

One of Ireland's oldest pilgrimage routes, St. Kevin's Way runs through the majestic hills of Wicklow, following in the footsteps of St. Kevin & all the pilgrims who went to visit his tomb in the awe-inspiring glacial valley of Glendalough. It is here where St. Kevin founded an early medieval monastic settlement and after his death, it became a centre of devotion and learning. You will encounter hidden church ruins, remote scenes, rugged landscapes and much more!
