HADRIAN'S WALL PATH

Considered one of the more easy going National Trails in the UK, the Hadrian's Wall Path runs from Wallsend on the east coast of England to Bowness-on-Solway on the west coast. The trail can be walked in either direction East-West or West-East. There's history every step of the way as it follows close to the remains of the UNESCO World Heritage Site, Hadrian's Wall - the defensive wall built by the Romans on the northern border of their empire in 122AD. Trace 2,000 years of history across the beautiful border.

From Minehead in Somerset, to Poole Harbour in Dorset, the South West Coast Path is the longest waymarked footpath in England and Wales. Our walking tours focus on the the 173km (107.5miles) long central section of the South West Coast Path in south west Cornwall, between Padstow and Penzance. This part of the trail is also known as the 'Cornwall Coast Path' and offers some of the best coastal walking in Europe.

COTSWOLD WAY

The Cotswold Way is a very popular long-distance National Trail in south central England that offers beautiful walking with panoramic views of the Cotswold landscape.

The trail passes through a varied and quintessentially English landscape with old woodlands, picturesque villages, wildflower meadows and famous ancient sites all on display.
